BLOWING UP

Of the Alexander Bank at Paris
Is the Talk of the State—
1,000 Depositors Lose
$300,000

Paris, Ky., May 23.—The arrest of George Alexander, president of the banking house of George Alexander & Company, of Paris, Friday evening, on charges of embezzlement, making of false banking statements, false entries, etc., was the final incident in a financial catastrophe which has left all Paris and Bourbon County dazed, and the extent of which cannot be well understood outside of the prosperous little bluegrass community.

Uncertainty as to the extent and amount of other obligations of like character made it necessary for the doors to be closed and a thorough inquiry made, which has resulted in the discovery that the personal liabilities of Mr. Alexander will reach at least $225,000, and quite probably more.

Some of the Losers.
The capital stock of the bank is $40,000 of which over half was held by Mr. Alexander. The remainder is held by a comparatively small number of stockholders, no accurate list of which is obtainable for publication, but it is known that a number of the smaller stockholders are women.

The downfall of the House of Alexander, at Paris, has carried with it the savings of probably a thousand depositors. Whether they will recover anything depends, State Banking Commissioner T. J. Smith said on who is liable for outstanding notes signed George Alexander & Company, bankers, by George Alexander, president.

As the situation now appears, against $394,000 due the bank for loans, the $25,000 difference between the amount of re-discounts and the collateral pledged to secure them, and the $20,000 assessment to which the rest of the stock is liable, a total of $439,000 the bank owes to depositors, $285,000, and on out, standing loans at least $125,000, a total of $410,000.

Lexington People Interested in Failure.
Lexington people are deeply interested in the outcome of the George Alexander Banking Company of Paris which has been ordered closed by the State Banking Department.

Fred W. Sauer, of 242 Rand avenue, who has concessions at the Bluegrass Park, has sisters and a brother living in Paris who are reported to have suffered heavily. The losses of John Sauer amounted to $8,000 and he is reported to have made a deposit of $3,500 in the bank the day it was closed.

Another sister of Mr. Sauer lost $500. She is Mrs. William Mayfield of Dayton, Ohio. The total losses of the Sauer family is said to reach in the neighborhood of $13,000.
